New Airports Director Officially Announced: Tracy Stage

Tracy Stage, A.A.E., was approved by the Okaloosa Board of County Commissioners as the new airports director at a meeting this morning. Stage has been with the Airports for almost ten years, has earned the distinction of Accredited Airport Executive, by the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE), and had a successful military career prior to his employment with Okaloosa County. "Tracy has earned this promotion and exhibits high energy in all he does for our airports," stated Commission Chairman Kelly Windes. "Home cooking works lots of times."

Two new airlines, Allegiant and Glo, have recently been added to the Destin-Fort Walton Beach Airport, while Tracy Stage was acting interim director. "I am absolutely thrilled and most of all, extremely proud of our team and what we have accomplished together. This is my home, and I look forward to the opportunity to continue to serve Okaloosa County and lead our airports," said Tracy Stage. For more information, contact 311 or 850-651-7160, extension 4.
