Library Cooperative Coordinator on Talk Radio in May Information, Resources & Activities at the Library Now Through Summer

Okaloosa County Public Library Cooperative (OCPLC) Coordinator Vicky Stever will be on WFTW Talk Radio 1260 on Thursday, May 17. Call in with your Okaloosa County questions beginning at 7:00 a.m. Stever will discuss community partnerships, as well as its partnership with the six member libraries: Crestview, Destin, Fort Walton Beach, Mary Esther, Niceville and Valparaiso. OCPLC provides a variety of services to the community free of charge. Learn about these services and upcoming events when you tune in with Host Ken Walsh. Tune into WFTW Talk Radio 1260 AM and call 664-1260 with your questions.

OCPLC supports the Department of Children and Families (DCF) programs for youth, to include Access Florida and the Right Service at the Right Time, which provides information on where and how to find a service or even fill out applications and forms online. Art exhibits rotate in the Crestview, Destin, Fort Walton Beach and Niceville libraries, and two anniversary events are scheduled for May and June. OCPLC libraries offer something for the entire family. For more information, contact OCPLC at 609-5101 or visit www.readokaloosa.org.
