

Okaloosa County News Release

March 19, 2015

Kathy Newby, 850.651.7515, knewby@co.okaloosa.fl.us

NR15-25

PHOTO CAPTION GinNeal McVay, interim Human Resources Director for Okaloosa County, was recognized at the Okaloosa County Commissioner meeting for becoming a Certified Professional by the Society of Human Resources Management. She is pictured with County Administrator John Hofstad.

Okaloosa County Interim HR Director Receives Certification

GinNeal McVay recently became the interim Human Resources Director for Okaloosa County, replacing Kay Godwin who accepted the position as Deputy Administrator. McVay also became a Certified Professional by the Society of Human Resources Management, (SHRM-CP), in addition to her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification that she already possesses.

McVay was also selected to serve as the 2015 Accreditation Chair of the Emerald Coast Chapter of SHRM. “Many of our employees are accredited and certified in their positions, bringing added expertise to their service to the citizens of Okaloosa County,” said Chairman Commissioner Nathan Boyles.

###