Okaloosa Emergency Management Chief Randy McDaniel Elected Florida Emergency Preparedness Association Area One Governor

Okaloosa Emergency Management Chief Randy McDaniel has been elected as the Florida Emergency Preparedness Association (FEPA), Area One Governor. Area One consists of ten counties from Escambia to the Apalachicola River. McDaniel will serve on the FEPA Board of Directors for a two year period representing area one, as well as serve on the FEPA Membership and Awards Committee and the Public Private Partnership Committee. FEPA was created in 1957 to help professional Emergency Managers work to protect the people of Florida.
