Public Safety Director Resigns

Corrections Director to take the Helm of Public Safety

Niceville – Okaloosa County Public Safety Director Alvin Henderson announced his resignation this morning to the County Administrator and the Board of County Commissioners.

Department of Corrections Director Stefan Vaughn will take over the responsibilities of Public Safety and serve as Director of both areas. Director Vaughn has the full confidence of the Board of County Commissioners to lead the combined department due to his extensive operational and emergency management experience during his time with the Okaloosa Department of Corrections and the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office.

The Board thanks Mr. Henderson for his service to the people of Okaloosa County.
