Board of County Commissioners Honors Local Olympian

Shalimar – The Okaloosa County Board of County Commissioners has declared April 24th Mia Manganello day throughout the county.

The Commission formally made the declaration honoring Miss Manganello at their meeting on April 17th.

Manganello is the Crestview native who earned a spot on the United States Olympic Speed skating team and a Bronze medal in the 2018 Winter Games.

Although her focus has largely been skating, Mia began her path to the Olympics at a roller rink in Crestview, she and also competes in cycling competitions.

Chairman Graham Fountain will award her with a proclamation on Tuesday, April 24th at 10:00 AM and would like to formally invite the media to attend the ceremony, which will be held at Warriors' Hall in Crestview.

The Chairman will be joined by Crestview City Officials as he makes the presentation.
