County Employee Named Guardian Ad Litem Community Partner of the Year

Crestview— Florida’s First Circuit Court Chapter of the Guardian Ad Litem Program named Samantha Cutsinger as its ‘Community Partner of the Year,’ for her excellent customer service to the organization.

The Guardian Ad Litem program provides minors with an advocate as they navigate the legal system. Many of these children have been abused, abandoned or otherwise neglected.

“Samantha was lauded for her teamwork and helpfulness in scheduling resources for their meetings, making them feel welcome, and generally going above and beyond the expected level of service, even on short notice, to accommodate their needs,” said Deputy County Administrator Kay Godwin.

Okaloosa County would like to congratulate Ms. Cutsinger for her acknowledgement and thank her for her hard work on behalf of the County.
