

Commissioner Carolyn Ketchel Gives Keynote Speech to Annual Gathering of Social Workers

NICEVILLE – Commissioner Carolyn Ketchel gave the keynote address at the annual NASW luncheon. The event honors the top social workers in the field in the Okaloosa County area.

Also in attendance were Stefan Vaughn and Sandra Hoffa of the Okaloosa County Jail.

In her address, Commissioner Ketchel expounded the need to address mental health issues on a larger scale in Okaloosa County, better health forensics and the breakdown of the American family.

Commissioner Ketchel is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and received her Master’s in Social Work from the University of Maryland.

For more information, please contact Christopher Saul at 585-7059 or csaul@myokaloosa.com

