Okaloosa County Hires First-Ever Transit Manager

Shalimar – Okaloosa County’s newest department has a manager. Booker Tyrone Parker accepted a position as a head of the County Transit Program effective immediately.

Parker attacks the challenge of Okaloosa County’s Transit needs with a wealth of expertise which comes from a quarter century of transportation knowledge. He earned his Bachelor’s degree from Jackson State University in Computer Technology. He has worked in both the public and private sectors extensively in various leadership positions.

“We are fortunate to have veteran leadership joining our team as we work to increase efficiency in our transit program,” said County Administrator John Hofstad, “we expect incredible improvement in this area and know Mr. Parker can achieve results.”

Parker will go through orientation on the 25th and begin his first full day of work on the 26th.
